America has played a critical part in the transformation of East Asia. It still has much to teach, and it now has much to learn as well. By studying Asian experience, Americans can re-learn the importance of self-discipline, and face Asian competition without relying on their power and resorting to protectionism.

Collision Course : America and East Asia in the Past and the Future. HARLAND, Bryce. Singapour, Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, 1996, 230 p. C'est un surprenant petit ouvrage, et l'on peut trouver judicieuse la question de l'auteur dans son postscript : t « What business has a New Zealander to write a book about America and Asia? ».
